2 Americans Finish Flight Over Atlantic

By DAVID MASON
PARIS (AP) — Munching hard-boiled eggs and drinking beer, two American doctors flew the Atlantic Sunday, after his history-making hop. All went well until the last few hours, when the plane was steered away from the Le Bourget airfield, where Lindbergh landed in 1927. The plane was directed to land at a small airfield near the town of Brest, France, about 20 miles northwest of Le Bourget. The flight was the first since 1927, when Charles A. Lindbergh flew from Bartowville, Ky., and John Rieger of Los Angeles, Calif., sailed through the air from New York to New York.

"But when we got into the Le Bourget flight pattern we were directed to the other airport," they added.

The Le Bourget administrative office said the airport was closed to private craft early Saturday morning because of unusual activity during the flight. The plane was seen flying in the air show, which begins Friday.

The doctors, flying a standard single engine Beechcraft plane, said the 1,100 nautical mile flight took about 16 hours, 57 minutes, 32 seconds after take off from John F. Kennedy Airport in New York.

Lindbergh in his Spirit of St. Louis, took 33 hours, 29 minutes to complete his flight from New York, 1927, from Roosevelt Field, which is only a few miles from Kennedy.

RANK HAS NO PRIVILEGES When it comes to getting immunities prior to leaving for summer camp, Capt. James L. Wright, commander of Co. B, 372nd Battalion of the local Army Reserve, takes it in the arm from Capt. G. M. Hemminger, Salt Lake City, 325th General Hospital, USA, Reserve. The local unit was preparing Saturday and Sunday to depart for summer encampment in California. (Times-News photo)

Strife In Hong Kong Growing, Chinese Street Fights Feared

By BOB POOS
HONG KONG (AP) — Communist and pro-Nationalist Chinese are fighting between the two factions in October 1956 killed 200 persons and wounded more than 200. A Swiss diplomat's wife was burned to death when her car was overturned, drenched with gas and ignited.

Anti-Communist posters were pasted on the walls of the Hong Kong Island, known as the Supreme Court. Communist Chinese teenagers, led by older persons, named streets in the Chinese Wanchai area of Hong Kong Island, smashing buildings and people with red paint. They spat at least one European with paint, roughly up another and chased him.

Funds Are Pledged To Assure Mental Center

By BONNIE BAIRD JONES
Times-News Staff Writer

With the exception of one legal technicality, the first step toward establishing a mental retardation center in South Central Idaho has been accomplished.

This was the announcement Friday by Rep. Ray Lincoln, Twin Falls, after being advised by the South Central Idaho Medical Society of a $12,000 gift to establish the center.

Two other groups have come forward to provide assistance in meeting a $25,000 goal needed for the center to be established.

Mr. Lincoln said Harbor House of Magic Valley earlier gave $15,000 to the new project.

and the city of Twin Falls has submitted a letter stating it will donate necessary land as a site for the center.

The $25,000 was necessary, plus the site, if the center is to be established by state and federal funds available this year.

Mr. Lincoln, who represents District 23 in the Legislature, said the remaining technicality is to determine if the Harbor House money, a county appropriation, can be legally given to a local agency.

Dr. Ben E. Katz, member, said they hope their contribution will serve as an example to others in raising the next $10,000 to provide not only for the retardation center, but to build the Harbor House project for children.

Actually, some $35,000 is needed locally to qualify for funds that will become available during the next two years.

Dr. C. R. McWilliams, president of the medical society and in charge of the center, said they hope their contribution will serve as an example to others in raising the next $10,000 to provide not only for the retardation center, but to build the Harbor House project for children.

Zone Change Is Granted To "N" Club

A zoning change that would allow the operation of the "N" Club to continue in business at its present location has been granted by the Twin Falls District Court.

Application for the change from industrial to commercial zoning was made in April by Lawrence Boyd, owner, and was granted by the court.

The zoning change was denied March 21, due to "lack of police protection and sanitation facilities for future expansion," George Ottens, Filer, zoning administrator, said.

Mr. Boyd and Mrs. Cox applied the denial, and the application was approved during an appeal hearing held Friday.

The club was granted a beer license before it was known that it was located in an industrial zone, which does not allow operation of taverns.

The hearing aids we can't tell you about...

(You have to HEAR them to believe them)

There is no way to adequately describe the hearing help offered by the remarkable "Solectronic" series aids by MAICO.

Why are these aids different? Because they are selective "Tone Selector Tuning" enables you to hear the sounds you want to hear and block out the sounds you don't want to hear.

The acoustic response of "Solectronic" aids can be adjusted to "fit the ear" in your hearing-to provide amplification in sound.

They are not bulky and do not leave you already hear well at normal level and providing clear, "natural" sound.

The proof is in the sound—the "Maico, the most respected name in Hearing"

Washington Girl Hurt In Jerome Crash

JEROME — A Richland, Wash., girl, injured in a head-on collision south of the Greenwald store in Jerome county Friday night, was listed in "fairly good" condition Saturday by attendants at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital, Twin Falls.

Patricia Smith, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murry E. Richland, was taken to the hospital by ambulance after the 1960 Rambler station wagon her father was driving was struck from the rear by a 1967 Oldsmobile driven by Roy Brown, Route 2, Barelino, as Mr. Smith stopped at a stop sign on a frontage road before entering a north-south county road.

The crash occurred about 7 p.m. Friday, according to State Patrolman Carl Billman, who cited Mr. Brown for a stop sign violation. The Smith station wagon went off the road into a steel post and was demolished.

Damage to the Brown auto was estimated at $1,000. Neither of the drivers, nor Mr. Smith were injured.

Red Fire From DMZ Led To Invasion By Marine Forces

DA NANG, South Vietnam (AP) — A meaning toll of American casualties from North Vietnamese artillery, rockets and mortars buried within the DMZ, the zone prompted the Marines to invade the southern portion of the six-mile-wide buffer zone.

As one Marine officer put it, the North Vietnamese troops have been using the zone as a sanctuary to move their artillery and rockets to within range of the DMZ.

The Marines moved them into South Vietnam, launched an attack, they pulled back into the zone.

"We're going in and clean them out," said a Marine general.

Since April 20, four Marine units ramping from two to eight miles south of the zone, and infantrymen purchasing through nearby territories to root out the Communists, have suffered 139 dead and 1,018 wounded.

Most of the casualties have resulted from mortars, artillery and rockets. Such losses have intensified in recent weeks.

Recently a night by that Marine outposts are not hit.

Leading up to the invasion was a push of 5,000 Marines to clear out elements of the North Vietnamese regiments threatening the outpost of Con Thien, two miles south of the DMZ.

The push began with one battalion of Marines last week off Communist forces heavily attacking Con Thien were broken off. Reinforcements were rushed in until the Marine force gave five battalions, but they stayed just south of the zone.

Since Sunday, this force of 5,000 Marines has suffered perhaps more than 500 casualties mostly from mortar fire.

Recently the Marines and North Vietnamese had duels with artillery across the DMZ. While Communist troops sometimes moved into the northernmost provinces of South Vietnam, Marines pursued the enemy only to the border zone.

But apparently there was growing concern about the buildup of Communist artillery and U.S. military strategists also were concerned by the buildup of North Vietnamese troops in and around the DMZ.

Since then had 35,000 to 40,000 troops spread across and around the area.

There was some belief that the allied movement would do much to change the course of the war.

Memorial Poppy Days To Be Observed Friday, Saturday

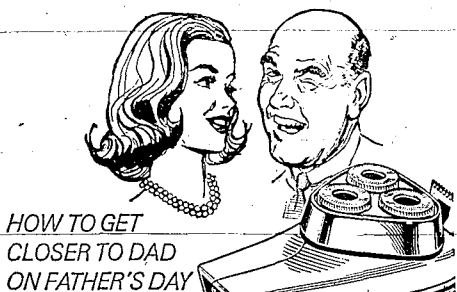

Magie Valley residents will observe Memorial Poppy Days on Friday and Saturday, May 27 and 28, to observe the First World War. The poppy is a symbol of remembrance for the dead and disabled veterans of the First World War. Mrs. Ivan G. Johnson, Poppy chairman, announced Friday.

The Memorial Poppies are made in the Veterans Hospitals and workshops. The disabled veterans who make the flowers are able to gain a dual benefit from their work. It gives them their only opportunity to support themselves and their families, and offers them a productive pastime to combat long hours in the hospital.

Volunteers who offer the poppies to the public, unlike the disabled veterans, receive nothing tangible for their work. Contributions go directly to the welfare activities of the American Legion and Auxiliary. All funds are used for the aid of disabled veterans and their families or the families of deceased servicemen.

Parents Are Warned Of Home Poisons

Spring cleaning, painting and spraying for weeds and insects carry a number of hazards for small children, Dr. Luther C. Thompson, medical director of the South Central Idaho Health Department, reminded parents.

Dr. Thompson said that while parents are busy with spring work they should keep in mind such things as household cleaning material, insecticides and pesticides as well as many fertilizers containing poison.

These should be kept out of reach of small children, Dr. Thompson warned.

About 35 per cent of the cases of poison accidents for children reveal poisonous materials on the floor where the child is found. Most dangerous are poisoning of children is one to two years old when he starts just beginning to get around on his own and to reach into strange places, Dr. Thompson explained.

For preventing such accidents, the health department suggests such poisons chemicals and materials be kept in locked cabinets or sheds; they be kept in their original containers and that poison intended for rats, moles or other pests not be spread about the home and lawn where children can reach it.

Parents should make certain the children understand the danger of putting unknown substances in their mouths. Should the child eat or drink poisonous material, he should be taken immediately to his doctor or nearest hospital, the health director advised.

LOOKING OVER a book presented to them by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Drake are newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Tiffney. Mrs. Grace Davis, an employee at Sky View Manor and a dear friend of the couple, right, points to a particular article in the book. The couple, Mrs. Cirila Blamires, 74, and Glen Tiffney, 73, were married May 11 in rites at Sky View Manor.

RECEIVING A BIG KISS from her son, Bob Blamires, is the new bride, Mrs. Glen Tiffney, as her husband looks on. Matron of honor for the couple was Mrs. Edna Jones, a nurse at Sky View Manor. The bride wore a two-piece white brocade suit enhanced with a pink corsage. One hundred and thirty five guests attended the wedding.

AMONG THE NURSES serving at the reception for the newlyweds are, from left, Nell Visser, Alice Wiseman, Betty Harkin, Beverly Norris, Thelma Stenore, Lucile Stryker and Rose Williams. One hundred and thirty-five guests attended the ceremony May 14 which was performed by Bishop Claude

Brown. This is the second wedding noted at Sky View Manor, the other one was Nov. 18, 1964, when William H. Mills, 67, and Mrs. Flolele Elizabeth Babett, 74, were married. Mrs. Grace Davis, friend of the couple, made the arrangements for both weddings.

"Sticky" Plight Leads To Romance, Marriage

By NORMA HERZINGER

What started out as a very sticky situation turned out to be a budding romance.

During dinner one evening at Sky View Manor, a bowl of sticky, sweet jelly was accidentally spilled onto the lap of Mrs. Cirila Blamires by Glen Tiffney. After apologies were given, Mr. Tiffney agreed to wheel Mrs. Blamires, who is confined to a wheelchair, to the washroom to clean the sticky jelly from her dress. Word has it they have been sweet on each other since.

The romance for Mrs. Blamires, who is 74, and Mr. Tiffney, who is 73, reached its climactic peak Sunday evening when the couple was united in marriage in rites at the manor.

One hundred and thirty-five guests attended the ceremony which was performed by Bishop Claude Brown. The bride looked radiant in her two-piece white brocade suit enhanced with a lovely pink corsage.

A pink and white color scheme was used throughout the ceremony and reception, with Fox Floral furnishing the beautiful flowers.

Mrs. Edna Jones, a nurse at the manor, was matron of honor, and Bob Blamires, son of the bride, was best man. Ivan Montgomery was soloist and Jeanette Higgins, pianist. Buttry's Super Store baked the sheet cakes for the reception and Safeways baked the tiered wedding cake which was served by nurses at the manor.

A book was presented to the couple, complete with colored pictures of the wedding, from Mr. and Mrs. Harold Drake.

The bride came to Idaho from Utah in 1922 and raised her family, five sons and two daughters. She has been a widow for 40 years and boasts proudly of her 50 grandchildren. She has resided at the manor for five years.

Mr. Tiffney came to Idaho in 1925 and has two daughters and one son. He has resided at the manor for six and one-half years.

Although the new Mrs. Tiffney is confined to a wheelchair and her left arm is paralyzed from a recent stroke, she does much of the ironing at the manor and does many helpful chores for the other residents. Mr. Tiffney assists with some of the yard work, and like his new bride, is very active. The couple plans to reside at the manor.

Now this is where most stories end, but something else must be added. A very dear friend of the couple and an employee of the manor, Mrs. Grace Davis, was very instrumental in all arrangements for the lovely wedding ceremony, including picking out the

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: We have a problem in our family that is growing worse. Our son is 11 years old and he is the most money-hungry kid I have ever seen. All this boy thinks about is money. When I ask him to do a simple chore, such as emptying the trash, he says, "How much is it worth to you?" If he finds a friend a dollar, he charges him outrageous "interest." He carries his lunch to school, sells it to the highest bidder, buys himself a bottle of milk for lunch, and pockets the difference. His father and I are pleased that our son respects money, but we think he is overdoing it. What should we do?

DEAR WORRIED: An excessive preoccupation with AMOUNTING, if you're a fellow, is a symptom of an unhealthy personality.

Children usually mirror their parents' attitudes, so unless without knowing it you have had more to do with shaping the boy's values than you think. If you and your husband can't cure his "money-hunger" with reason and patient example, perhaps a psychiatrist can help him. (You'll find it worth the cost to pay the kid to go, but it could be worth it.)

DEAR ABBY: My sister eloped last January and my parents and I are going to visit her and her husband next weekend. I have never met my brother-in-law. Would it be proper for me to kiss him? Or should I just shake hands? WONDERING.

DEAR WORRIED: If you're a fellow, just shake hands. If you're a sister, a sisterly kiss would be in order.

DEAR ABBY: I am only 15, but I learned a lesson I will never forget. When my parents used to tell me "I warned you when I didn't come home when I said I would," I thought they were right. Well, now that I got a taste of my own medicine, I don't think they're so silly any more.

Last Saturday night my folks went out and said they'd be home around midnight. Well, it got to be one o'clock in the morning, then two, then three and they still weren't home. Abby, I nearly went out of my mind imagining they were both dead in a ditch somewhere with the car on top of them.

Finally, at 4 a.m., they came home. It seems they ran into some old friends and were just sitting around their apartment talking over old times. They didn't bother to call me because they didn't think I'd worry. He-he-he me, I will NEVER give them the kind of night they gave me.

TABLETS TURNED

CONFIDENTIAL TO "CONCERNED ABOUT MY GRANDCHILDREN'S FUTURE." Your letter revealed a treasury of insight into the threats of population explosion, but it is too long for republication.

Lord Brain, a famous biologist and evolutionary biologist in Great Britain said it this way: "When, wherever you live in the world, you can have children only when you wish, that will be a revolution with more far-reaching effects on the pattern of human culture than the discovery of atomic energy."

'Tractor Deafness', Do You Have It?

"Tractor Deafness" is a common cause of poor hearing among farmers, ranchers and others who operate tractors over long periods of years.

As the result of research carried on since 1960, we have found several ways to reduce the hearing of such persons—even if they have "never lost" or poor hearing in both ears.

Treat Is In Store For Idaho Ballet Fans During Summer

This summer will be different for ballet fans in Idaho. With the record of success in the past, according to Mrs. J. H. Joffrey, Idaho's ballet and the Joffrey group, there may be more incentive in Idaho to attend the opportunities that will put summer appearances of the City Center Joffrey Ballet, Tacoma.

She notes that not only will it provide three concert appearances in Lewiston, Boise and Pocatello, but will also mean that Idaho will be seeing the ballet program that will move on to open its New York season.

Mrs. Evans and two other members of the council announced that three young Idaho dancers to a Tacoma audition with Robert Joffrey. More than 20 dancers were screened for the 40 apprentice and six main positions with the troupe this summer.

The Idaho girls must have done an outstanding job because Tenley Taylor, Caldwell, is now listed as a member of the troupe and Peggy Keller, Twin Falls, a student of Beverly Hackney, as one of the six standbys.

The Lewiston performance is set for Aug. 21, Boise, Aug. 23, and Pocatello, Aug. 26. Mr. Joffrey has offered to consider a special event for the state's ballet students, perhaps an open rehearsal, or a lecture demonstration.

The tour requires $20,000 in statewide support funds in addition to ticket sales for the three performances. If the council and the Pacific Northwest Association can meet the obligations in this first year, then the chances are good that the Joffrey Ballet will be making its summer home in the northwest on a regular and full Allyn.

Red Chinese Feel LBJ Will Lose Election

CHICAGO (AP) — Leaders of Communist China last week predicted Johnson will be defeated in 1968 but that his successor will pursue the same basic aims in Southeast Asia, a journalist says in the Chicago Daily News Saturday.

Simon Malley, in one of a copyrighted series on China, reports that Premier Chou En-lai and others say that disengagement with the war in Vietnam will lead to a Republican victory in next year's election.

Some voters will turn away from Johnson because they oppose the war, the Chinese leaders are reported as saying, but others will cast Republican ballots because of the U.S. failure to achieve victory.

Malley's stories are based on interviews he said he had with China's leaders during March and April. Malley is the United Nations correspondent for the French language Jeune Afrique. He said Chinese newspapers, which have denied that he interviewed important government officials.

Malley's reports indicate that China leaders believe Americans will have no real choice in the election in determining the nation's Asian policy, that they favor the president, who will favor continued American presence in Southeast Asia.

The journalist said his Chinese sources were unable to see any significant difference in American politician generally mentioned as a potential presidential candidate.

This included, Malley said, Sen. Robert Kennedy, D-N.Y., former Vice President Richard Nixon, California Gov. Ronald Reagan, and Michigan Gov. George Romney.

Senator Sees Passage Of Tax Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff, D-Conn., predicted Saturday the Senate will pass later this session his proposal to give parents a tax break on college education costs.

It will have to be added as an amendment to a House measure, he said, but he expects it will reach the House floor under procedure which bars amendments on the floor of the Senate. He said the measure has not had a chance to go to the floor.

Ribicoff said he understands there is growing support for it in the House, although he would not predict what might happen there.

However, he said a strong Senate majority now has been achieved for it and said, I believe, it will continue to grow.

Last month the Senate voted 33 to 26 to add the Ribicoff plan as an amendment to a bill restoring business tax incentive provisions.

But this was only a tentative decision. Later, as a part of the maneuvering over repeal of the presidential campaign financing plan, nearly all amendments were stripped from the bill.

Polio Victim To Graduate From School

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Paul Richards, Alexander, will graduate this spring from Samuel High School without ever having met a normal child in his classroom. His grades are high.

Alexander was struck with paralytic polio when he was 6, before entering school. He has spent much of his time for 15 years in his iron lung.

His teachers have been instructors for the homebound in the Dallas school system. His notebook resembles any other pupil's. But Paul does his written work by handing a pencil in his mouth. He paints well the same way.

The young man says he studies "to make the grades and I like to learn. I'm happy to learn."

He makes A's and a couple of B's. "I had to have a degree of graduate," he said in an interview. "But I couldn't do an interview. We compromised, and I settled for a B."

He will be the first permanently homebound student to graduate in the district. The teaching program began in 1953. For recreation, Paul plays chess and listens to records.

Fate Of $370,000 Federal Bill For Fire Fighting Services Undetermined

By MARK BROWN Associated Press Writer
BOISE (AP) — The fate of a bill for more than $370,000 authorized by the state of Idaho to fund two federal agencies for fire-fighting services is still undetermined.

No money was appropriated to pay the bill, despite a request by the State Department of Forestry during the 1967 session of the Idaho legislature.

Emergency funds available to the Forestry Department — now a branch of the Department of Land and Air passage of a reorganization measure — are not sufficient to cover the bill.

Credits are the Bureau of Land Management and the U.S. Forest Service. They provided fire-fighting services during the major fire last summer at the request of the then state forester, Roger Guernsey.

Guernsey has since been fired by Gov. Don W. Samuelson. Guernsey's former assistant, Jack Gillette, is now assistant land commissioner for forests under a reshuffling of the land department during the 1967 Idaho legislature.

Gillette said he was told by committee chairman Sen. Don Cleveland, R-Burley, that no money was available with which to pay the bill.

A meeting took place during the major fire last summer at the request of the then state forester, Roger Guernsey.

Under the Constitution, the House must originate all revenue measures. But tax bills normally reach the House floor under procedure which bars amendments on the floor of the Senate.

Reds Strike In Fifth To Drop Phillies

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Tony Perez' two-run single and a booming triple by Don Pavletich keyed a seven-run inning for Cincinnati as the Reds whipped the Philadelphia Phillies 5-2 Saturday.

Perez' single followed a walk in Tommy Harper and Mike Pincus' double and tied the score at 2-2. Then Pavletich's triple put the Reds in front and knocked out starter Grant Jackson.

Reliever Dick Farrell was stung for two more outs as the Reds banged out five hits in their big innings.

Until the sixth, Jackson was almost untouchable in his bid with 18-year-old rookie sensation Gary Nolan. The Phillies young left-hander allowed only two hits and struck out eight before Cincinnati found the range.

Southpaw Jerry Arigo, who came on in relief of Nolan and shut the door on the Phillies' two-run fourth inning rally, got the victory. He allowed just one hit in six innings of relief.

Race Field Is Filled To Overflowing
INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The 33-car field for the 500-mile race May 20 was filled to overflowing Saturday at a record average of 104,000 miles per hour. The old mark was 100,250 m.p.h. last year.

There will be one more qualifying session Sunday in which a car still can make the line-up by replacing one of the earlier starters with a faster 10-mile average.

Chance Hurls Twins Over Angels 7-2

ANAHEIM (AP) — Dean Chance scattered seven hits for his seventh straight victory Saturday night, leading Minnesota past California 7-2. Chance, facing his former mates for the first time since the Angels traded him to the Twins last winter, was within two outs of posting his third consecutive shutout. But Don Mischer singled with one out in the ninth inning and Rick Reichardt homered over the left field fence. Rookie Red Carew doubled home a run for the Twins in the first inning, and they exploited for five more runs in the third, driving over Nick Wiltshire from the mound.

A two-run homer by Harmon Killebrew and a two-run single by Jerry Zimmerman featured the big rally. The Angels advanced only one runner as far as third base until the ninth. They suffered their eighth loss in the last nine games. Chance has lost only one game and is 7-1 over-all.

ROMA (AP) — Primo Carnera, the seriously ill, 60-year-old former heavyweight boxing champion of the world, returned to his native Italy Saturday.

Baseball's Storms To Break Win

In Reality Second, Proud Clarion Third

BALTIMORE (AP) — Damascus, beaten favorite in the Kentucky Derby two weeks ago, stormed through the stretch like a wild horse Saturday and won the 92nd running of the $100,000 Preakness at Pimlico. Seven far back of stablemate Celtic Air midway of the back stretch, Damascus moved into contention rounding the final turn and when the field of 10 3-year-olds straightened out for home, he said good-bye to his rivals.

About 2 p.m. Saturday we started eating our seemingly weekly dose of crow and the time passed an equal portion to the sports writer. It was the "experts" who saw I was in the lead. I was the only one who saw I was in the lead. I was the only one who saw I was in the lead.

With five field event points in the morning, Idaho Falls jockey added the championship — and two records — in the first five events of the day. The winner of the 100-yard dash, Idaho Falls jockey, won the 100-yard dash, the 200-yard dash, the 400-yard dash, the 800-yard dash, and the 1,600-yard dash.

But we don't feel quite so sure about the powerful stretch run carried him across the finish line 24 lengths in front of the field. He was the only one who saw I was in the lead. I was the only one who saw I was in the lead.

The Money Box

BY FRANK SCHIEL

From R.I.F., Burley: I have a coin about the size of a silver dollar, and apparently made of silver.

On one side is a woman seated on some kind of throne next to a globe. She has a spear in her hand. Around the figure are the words "PENELOPE POR LA PAZ" and underneath the figure, "4th SOL".

On the back of the coin is a shield with an animal, a tree and what looks like a horn of plenty, surrounded by the words "REPUBLICA PERUANA LIMA 9 DEC 1917" and "F. F. It is dated 1917. What can you tell me about it?"

Answer: This is a "1 Sol" piece of Peru. The "1 Sol" refers to the silver content—50 fine. This particular coin was struck from 1854 until 1917 and is a fine example of the engraver's art. (See illustration.)

Peru's recent piece, called a "diner," is the root for our own word "dinner" which has come to mean a quantity of money in the United States.

Your coin's worth, exchange in United States money, only about 30 cents—but collector value is high at $5. The silver in the coin is worth more than that.

From Mrs. L. W. Greding: I have a coin which is very old. It is a woman's head with wings on it. I like the word "PENELOPE POR LA PAZ" and the date is under the head. On the other side it says "BUNNAN" and has a bunch of palm trees. On one side of the coin is a globe. Please tell us what you can about it.

Answer: You evidently have an almost uncirculated example of the 5-cent piece from Rumania, a French overseas island territory, in the Indian Ocean, off Madagascar. The island is only 593 square miles in area and exports a great amount of sugar, spices, coffee and tea.

The coin was first minted in 1935 and is still current. The metal is aluminum and after a little circulation it becomes very dull in appearance. Official rate of exchange is about 100 francs of a cent to a "franc" or 100 francs would make four cents in our money. Collector value on a brand new piece would be about 35 cents.

Mrs. M. O. Burley: Your coin is the 50-Bani piece of Romania, issued under Carol I, between 1884 and 1894. Since it takes 10 of these to equal 5 cents in United States money, the coin has very little value in exchange.

Collector value runs about 25 cents per copy.

The following letter comes to us from a young reader who says, "I am 10 years old and interested in collecting money. Can you tell me what countries in the world use a penny, besides the United States?"

Answer: The United States does use a penny. Our coin has always carried the word "CENT" on it—not penny. The use of the word is a heritage from our English ancestors, and the English possessions were the only users of the word.

The following countries have used the word "penny": Australia, British Guiana, British West Africa, Ceylon, Fiji, Ghana, Great Britain, Guernsey, Ireland, Jamaica, Mauritius, New Guinea, New Zealand, Nigeria, Rhodesia and Nyasaland, South Africa and Southern Rhodesia. These were at one time or still are, possessions of Great Britain. Finland has a coin called by this name, but it is spelled "penni".

Not all the British possessions had a "penny," however—

Retired Sign Painter Patiently Explains Why "Earth Is Not Round"

BY EDDY GILMORE
DOVER, England (AP) — "Of course the earth is round," said Samuel Shenton, 67, a retired sign painter.

"No man knows the ultimate shape of the earth," he replied, "but the earth as we live on it is most definitely flat."

"No man will ever know what the earth is like beyond the horizon," he said, "because of observation, invention and the laws of perspective."

Speaking very slowly, patiently, even gently, he added: "The earth is not round, it is flat. It is actually deep within the earth, and yields to water levels, horizontal and is quite upon."

With an answer to every question, he was very emphatic on the difficulties of policemen in catching up with the earth's orbital speed.

Centennial Medallion Struck To Commemorate Purchase Of Alaska

BURLEAU, Alaska—Jack London and Robert Service would certainly approve of the newest U.S. Mint struck Medallion for it salutes Alaska's gold rush days and the pioneers, who made the colorful history which London and Service have immortalized.

The 40 millimeter piece being struck at the U.S. Mint in Philadelphia will carry the mint mark "P" identifying its origin. It will be issued in platinum, silver, bronze and a few in the extremely valuable iridium.

Designed by two Alaskan artists, the medal displays a dauntless Alaskan prospector in traditional park on the obverse side and the official centennial emblem on the reverse side.

The medal was authorized by a special act of the U.S. Congress on the 100th anniversary of the purchase of Alaska from Russia. The purchase treaty called for a price of 7.2 million two cents per acre for a land one fifth as large as the contiguous 48 states. A year long celebration is being held throughout the 49th state in recognition of the centennial of purchase.

The number of silver medallions has been limited by Congress to 10,000; the first 2500 of which will be serially numbered by the mint.

The bronze issue is not numbered and the striking is not limited.

One hundred platinum medallions will be offered in matched number sets with silver and bronze at $500 each on a first come first served basis within the state. If all are not sold in 15 days, the remainder will be offered to collectors outside the state.

The iridium issue will be limited to 10 to be sold at $1,000 each. In terms of their metal content they will be the most valuable medallions ever struck. Profits from the iridium sale will create a Walt Disney Memorial Scholarship for a talented Alaskan artist at the California Institute of the Arts.

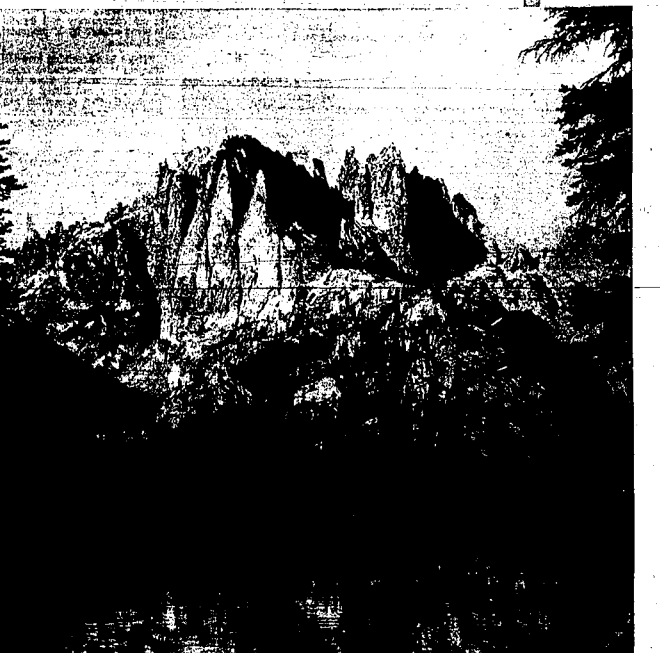

Silver and bronze medals may be ordered from the Alaska Centennial, P.O. Box 230, Anchorage, Alaska. Numbered silver pieces are $15, unnumbered are $10 and bronze pieces are $2.

As was known as the Universal discussion and she found the arguments very persuasive. "I get a lot of advice about the direction of the white cliffs. Then he said, 'At times one wonders whether or not it's better to live and die the sheep rather than pay the price of great individual effort to advance a little nearer the truth—the truth of life and being.'"

To Heck With Theories... It's Just Plain Family Fun

BY PUGGY LALEY
Times-News Feature Editor

Myrl and Marcella Schroeder, Filer, are practicing what others have been preaching for quite some time... family togetherness.

They don't know if they are doing this because of all the theories about family togetherness, or because they are authorities or because they just have fun together. Some how, though, I get the impression that it is just because they have fun.

Three years ago the Schroeders became interested in the fairly new and increasingly popular sport of "snowmobiling."

That first year they just sort of fumbled around. But the next winter they began racing, and this last March Marcella achieved the women's world championship for racing on local tracks at the nationals at West Yellowstone, Mont.

There are about 550 snowmobiles at the event with about 250 enthusiasts participating. At this same Western Snowmobile Roundup conducted by the National Hot Rod Association, Marcella also came in second in the world's speed event. The girl that took first checked at 62 miles per hour. Marcella got 61.1 miles per hour.

Then, too, she was the only woman to take part in the "enduro" trek at West Yellowstone. In this she didn't pass. "This was really rugged," she said.

Grant Given For Muscular Dystrophy

Growing scientific interest in the problem of muscle and its pathologies is reflected in the steadily increasing amount of money spent annually by Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America on the abstract service. It supports to keep researchers working around the world informed on developments in this field.

MDAA has just approved a grant of nearly $22,000 to the American Medical Foundation, which prepares a digest of the professional literature written in this field in all languages and publishes it, in English, under the title Muscular Dystrophy Abstracts. This publication is distributed, at no charge, to approximately a thousand institutions and individual investigators, including scientists working in basic biological disciplines as well as those concerned with the clinical aspects of muscle disease.

According to S. A. Kolman, president of MDAA's Kalman Valley Chapter, the current grant is almost double that awarded 10 years ago when the association initiated the service. "That means," he said, "that a great many more scientists are now working on the problem and reporting the results of their experiments."

Austria's Expo Exhibit Is Outlined

Austria's artistic contribution to Expo '67 is expressed in two different areas.

The first of these is in the "Man the Creator" international exhibition of art, which will show 150 works of art from 25 different countries are being shown. The second area is adjacent to and within the Austrian pavilion.

Austria's contribution to "Man the Creator" spans eight centuries of creativity, from a 12th Century crucifix to a painting of the 20th Century Austrian expressionist, Egon Schiele.

Austria is also represented in the exhibition of contemporary sculpture by a work of Professor Fritz Koenig. Wurmb will display one of his latest creations, a marble sculpture seven feet high.

Outside the Austrian Pavilion itself, sculptures are being created by Johannes Aramides, Walter Hertoni and Fritz Wurmb. Following an idea by Professor Rudolf Hofmeier, an electric was erect in steel. Fritz Koenig exhibits a sculpture in suggestive, Georg Rauch has conceived a sculpture symbolizing Austria's energy and power sources. Gerhard Wunche and Werner Wittinger contribute a sculpture representing the mineral oil industry.

A special task was assigned to the sculptor, Carl Stumacher, to create a symbol for the world-famous "oxen" steelmaking process known as the LD process. Commissions for the artistic layout of the representative groups in the Pavilion and for the design of the Austria Catalogue were awarded by the graphic artists, Paul Flora and Kurt Medveder.

Pamela Shirley Studies At University Of The Americas

MEXICO CITY (Special to free time. This land of Cortes, the Mayan, Aztec, and Inca, of so-called tropical coasts, of thousands of year-old pyramids and the stimulating activity of the ancient, largest metropolis in the hemisphere offers much to be explored.

While the entire scholastic program is set against the backdrop of living abroad and observing customs of another country, the school follows the same academic system as American colleges and universities.

It is the only liberal arts institution of higher learning in the United States and draws the largest number of U.S. students of any school, 1,000 a year.

Under the vigorous leadership of President Ray Lindley, who has headed the institution for the past five years, the university is rapidly outgrowing its present site and will soon move to a new 150-acre campus in the third section since being founded 27 years ago.

For Miss Shirley, studying in Mexico entails more than classrooms and homework. Many students with Mexican friends, where they speak Spanish, thus holding a front-line position in the exciting field of international studies.

Man's Needs Concern Of Salvationists

He knows that time spent with a troubled person pays rewards, even though he may see that person only once.

For in addition to serving as a minister, he serves as counselor to anyone who comes seeking his help.

The Salvation Army maintains a home for unmet needs in those, and the service that it has rendered to this community far exceeds what the local population has provided for its support.

The local unit also operates the Thrift Store in downtown Twin Falls which, besides contributing to the expenses of this religious and charitable institution, offers second hand clothing for sale to low income families.

There is more, much more, that can be told in this organization. It is rich in history as well as in service. Its name well-known but not many realize the scope of its accomplishments or its dreams.

HOW TO DEFEND WITH NOTHING

Covering the East and South hands and see if you can figure out how Helen Soler Smith defended with the West hand against South's three no-trump contract.

Helen started by opening the king of spades. North's two-club

That was allowed to hold also. Declarer put the ace on the third round and played his ace of hearts.

Helen was ready. She dropped her king. This established her partner's jack of hearts as an entry to the 13th spade and South wound up losing three spades, one heart, one diamond, game rubber and his equilibrium.

The play looks easy when you see all the cards, but it was just as easy for Helen at the table. She might have lost a trick had her partner not held the jack of hearts, but what is 30 points against game and rubber? Furthermore, Helen felt that if South really held the jack of hearts he might have gone over to dummy and taken a finesse. Even in rubber bridge an extra trick is worth something and the finesse is one of the standard ways to get it.

CARD SENSE

Q—The bidding has been: East South West North 1♣ 1♠ Pass 2♣ Pass 2♦ Pass 3NT Pass 4NT Pass 5♣ Pass

Yon, South, holds: ♠A1065 ♥KQ43 ♣A987 SOUTH (D) ♠A84 ♥KQ3 ♦A98 ♣K984

Both vulnerable South West North East 1NT Pass 2♣ Pass 2♦ Pass 3NT Pass 4NT Pass 5♣ Pass Opening lead: 4♣ bid had asked South to bid a four-card major if he had one, so Helen saw little point in attacking with a four-card minor suit when the chances were that South would also hold four cards in the suit.

The king of spades looked like a happy choice. It held the trick as East played the nine. Helen stopped to count points. She counted 22 between her hand and dummy. Give South 16 points minimum for his opening no-trump and the best East could hold would be two tricks. It appeared certain that East held the jack of spades, so Helen continued with the queen.

TODAY'S QUESTION Your partner bids six diamonds to show one king. What do you do now?

slaves who are first-year students. All were authentic Roman Catholics.

Dancing girls included Rosalinda, Terry Bergin, Dawn Johnson, Jeanne Barthelme and Maria Anderson.

A skit, "The Prize Apple," a poem read by Bud Koon and a group song led by Laurel Lamm were also in Latin.

Joe Daley, president of the class, ruled as emperor and presented pins to new members. Veda Rainey is secretary of the group.

"Ecumenicity." This is a word that is seen and heard often in today's news. Ecumenical, the word, means world wide in scope or application. Applied to Christianity, it means the coming together of meeting world-wide Christian unity.

The ladies of the various churches of KIMBERLY have been doing just this. If not on a regular basis, they have been planning on a town-wide scope, for over 20 years. Of course, at the time, they were not doing it, they were probably not aware of the word, but they were doing it.

Sometimes, about 1935, the Rev. Charles Kneiss, the rector of the Christian Church started an annual meeting of the ladies of all the communities in a luncheon. It started off with a bang right away, and seems to be continuing.

Representatives from ladies' groups of each church, Lutheran, Methodist, Episcopal, and Women's Relief Society, Lutheran, and Women's Missionary League, met and made plans for the annual get-together, called the "Kimberly Ladies Luncheon."

The "Kimberly Ladies Luncheon" was the need of better understanding between denominations. They had been missionaries to Japan. During the war years, because they were Japanese, they held services at the Hunt Recreation Center east of JEROME. Their pastor, Marshall, was graduated from Kimberly High School, and since then has been a missionary who has been married to Mrs. Trovelli. They now have four children.

No actual records have been kept of the first years of meetings, but this seems to be the first time that some of the earlier participants. Some believe the joint World Day of Prayer meetings also were instrumental in getting the groups together. Many seem to feel the need of understanding and the joy of fellowship and getting together with other and different groups.

This year the event was held in the Kimberly Methodist Church with the Methodist ladies as the hostesses. There were 117 ladies from all the churches, Methodist, Lutheran, Baptist, Nazarene, LDS and Catholic.

All women in the community are invited whether they are members of a church or not. Each group takes a particular part of the menu and furnishes for the dinner. Each church group also furnishes a number for the program.

This year the Methodist ladies chose the theme, "Tulip Time," and made name cards of various colors, shared like tulips. Each church group was designated with one particular color, then they found seats with programs in the shape of a wooden shoe, the same color as their nameplate. The colors were mixed with other colors so that no two from the same church sat next to each other or directly across from each other. You either are in silence or soon got acquainted with your neighbors. What was an an event talking?

The program this year included Linda Fisher and Glenn Harnman Jr. from the Nazarene Church, who sang a duet, accompanied by Mary Holcomb. Sandra Bretnes represented the Methodists with a reading, "Please Don't Eat the Daisies."

"Never Alone," as the Baptist contribution. Since their own accompaniment, it employed a d-d couldn't come. Mrs. Thomas, a Methodist, accompanied them.

Rev. Robert McNeil, pastor of the Methodist Church, gave the invocation. Mrs. Hugh Anderson accompanied group singing, with Mrs. Stenlund as the leader. Songs were shared from springtime favorites and ended with the hymn, "Bless Be the Tie That Binds."

At the end of the session, Mrs. Daley, the hostess, presented an invitation to the group to meet there next spring. Last year, the LDS Church was designated as the hostess.

places in train where they served "liquid refreshment."

She came to Rocky Bar with her father in 1932 when she was two years old. Since then she has known her she had had both legs frozen and they were amputated.

There was no doctor on the local butcher performed the operation. "The only regret that Annie had was that he didn't cut them off at the same length."

Those days are gone. Rocky Bar is seen now only by tourists, but I remember vividly the people and the days when it had a personality.

He was always ready to finish a drink or start a fight. When he came into the place, he was waited for our night the place would become as quiet as a funeral parlor. He was about as welcome as a rattlesnake in a baby's cradle.

There were two men Harris. He was the mail carrier from Atlanta. He charged along in an old four-wheeled buggy on a road that had only two straight places—straight up and straight down.

I have a lasting memory of Bob and Frank Jackson who were born in Rocky Bar. Their father was "Madam" Jackson. I never knew what his real name was, but he was the one who was shot by the FBI.

No history of Rocky Bar would be complete without a mention of old Annie Morrow. She spent time and trouble to fill in the details of their town and address.

Ten ways the Realtor takes the worry out of home buying.

Buying a home can be a barrel of fun. Or a peck of pitfalls. And that's where a Realtor comes in. Even though you may know the difference between a dormer window and a bay, his expert help can open your eyes to other features you might never notice. And steer you clear of drawbacks you might easily overlook. Below you will find ten of the best reasons we know for starting your search for a home in the Realtor's office.

1. THE REALTOR SAVES YOU TIME, EFFORT AND HEADACHES. He will give you expert advice on interests, learns something of your personal tastes—and tries to show you only the types of homes you want to see, within your price range.
2. THE REALTOR ADVISES YOU ABOUT NEIGHBORHOODS. His professional experience is invaluable to you in analyzing future trends and the potential value of your home as a long-range investment.
3. THE REALTOR PROVIDES YOU WITH FULL INFORMATION. He will give you expert advice on taxes, maintenance costs, quality of construction, adequacy of public services, schools, churches—even introduce you to the neighbors.
4. THE REALTOR ACTS AS A NEGOTIATOR. Setting of the finer points of price and other differences can get pretty hectic. You Realtor smoothes over the details and helps buyer and seller arrive at a mutually advantageous agreement.
5. THE REALTOR HELPS YOU STAY
